Thinking Out Loud

(By H. M. L.)

New streets, new water mains, new swimming pool and park, and now just around the corner, a brand new school house for Washington grammar school and a big addition to Nevada City high school. All this in the period of one or two years. For years Nevada City has jogged along making patched, mended and repaired things "do" against that moment when the community found itself prosperous enough to replace with new what until now perforce must be patched and repaired.

With building of adequate school structures, Nevada City will enter upon a era of growth and municipal well being. People who wish to make their homes and rear their children here, will not look askance at the venerable weather marked old grammar school where grandparents and great grandparents of the present generation went to school in 1868, when that school was new.

Educational facilities are at the foundation of any city's growth. Booms of course may strike and cities grow, schools or no schools, but over a term of years one of the determining factors in growth of any city is its schools.

Since the old Washington school was built many discoveries regarding room conditions, school furniture, ventilators and lighting have been made. Unless windows are so arranged as to a maximum of light without glare, the students eyesight may be permanently impaired. Air conditioning is an important factor in student health. School desks and seats to fit the varying leg lengths of the children, are needed for proper bodily development. All these things are new since great-great-grand-father went to school. An old school building cannot be adapted to modern school needs at a most much less than a new building, and when its done, we still have the old building, ready perhaps to tumble down in the first high wind.

The Nevaa City high school for the last two years has been crowded, not so crowded as it is this year with 272 students jammed into buildings intended to hold 100. The building comparatively new, it had been expected would be roomy enough for years to come. But now Nevada City is growing and nowhere else, perhaps, shows this population increase as it does in the high school. No school board could have envisioned such a growth when the high school was built.

We assume, of course, that the bonds for the $46,000 addition to the high school, and for a $72,000 new elementary school building, will carry by more than necessary two-thirds majority, when they come up for vote October 10. In many many years of observation, this writer has never known the voters of any community to turn down bonds for educating their own and their neighbors' children under such conditions of great need as now obtain in Nevada City. It should receive by resolution and action, the support of such organizations as the chamber of commerce, the Women's Civic Club, both actively interested in upbuilding Nevada City. The Elks whose wide charity concerns itself so much with bringing joy to children, the Native Sons and Daughters, whose state home finding bureau for waifs attests its sympathy with all movements to better the condition of children, the Nevada City Fire Department, one of the strongest forces in the city's upbuilding and improvement, the recently organized Rotary Club, and the Masonic orders who have come to play such a large part in education week. With these forces enrolled back of the bonds, they cannot fail.

By the way, the high school faculty invites those interested to come out and see just how crowded they are, but cautions: "Please come one at a time."

PRIZE FOR LIMERICK

In the last few days Mrs. Mae Hemseth of this city received a $10 check from the Hawiian Sugar Company in San Francisco, for a verse in limerick form. The sugar company offered a trip to Hawaii and 350 $10 prizes. The grocery company whom Mrs. Hemseth traded with, Penrose and Son of this city, were also given a $10 check. In the last few years Mrs. Hemseth has written articles for several magazines. Many of the articles deal with children and the growing youth.

Rotary Club Members Endorse School Bonds

The Nevada City Rotary Club at its regular weekly meeting Thursday at noon at the National Hotel listened to a discussion of the local school situation by three speakers who were all well qualified to present the facts in the matter.

The first speaker Mr. Walter Carlson, principal of the grammar school brought to the attention of the members of the club the vital necessity for a new school plant at the grammar school either through a complete revamping of the present plant or through a new building. The new building plan would be more economical and in every way the better plan according to Mr. Carlson.

Mr. H. E. Kjorlie principal of the high school spoke next and stated that while the school building is in a good state of repair, well laid out and constructed, it was designed for the accomodation of about 125 pupils and is now housing 272, the growth in school attendance being steady for the past five years with a prespective increase to 300 or more during the next school year. This means that something has to be done about increasing the size of the building to take care of the present needs as well as the future.

Mr Horace Curnow explained the financial set up stating that the proposed bond issues if carried for the amount of $118,000 as proposed would increase the local tax rate only some 45 cents to 50 cents per hundred dollars of valuation, the small amount of the tax being due primarily to the fact that the assessment rolls have been increased more than 50 percent this year largely due to addition of the public utilities' properties to the rolls. He explained also that application has been made to the Federal Government for loans and grants for both school projects and if approval is given to these pending applications that the amount of bonds to be sold to do the work on the school buildings can be somewhat reduced, with attendant need of smaller tax rate.

The Rotarians were very much interested in the talks and will individually make every possible effort to see that the bonds are carried and provision made for the children of this growing community.

Mr. Lageson, county horticulturist commissioner, states that each year sees an improvement in the quality and quantity of the apples produced in Nevada county. The growers are spraying and fertilizing their trees whereas not much effort along these lines has been undertaken before For years Nevada county has been known only as a mining community but this is no longer true for here are now grown quantities of the finest apples and Nevada county apples are gaining a reputation in the apple markets.

INJUNCTION GRANTED AGAINST MINING CO.

The action brought by Rube Noble and others against the You Bet Mining Company several months ago was tried in the superior court Wednesday before Judge Tuttle without a jury. An injunction was demanded against the company. The court granted an injunction provided the plaintiffs would put up a bond in the sum of $15,000 to reimburse the You Bet mining company for any damage it might suffer due to its operations being stayed by reason of the injunction.

The trial of the case yesterday became an action to quiet title, the defendant company setting up its claim of title to the property involved and the plaintiff, Rube Noble and his associates, offering evidence to controvert these claims.

The evidence concluded, the case was submitted on briefs to the You Bet mining company to have ten days thereafter to file a reply brief and the plaintiff given five days to file the closing brief.

Lynne Kelly appeared for the You Bet company and P. H. Johnson of Sacramento for the Noble interests.

Mine Owners Plan War On the Severance Tax

The California State Mining Board yesterday issued an invitation to all California mine owners and mining men to attend a state wide meeting to be held in the auditorium at the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce building, Saturday, October 5th, at 10:30 a. m. to discuss the proposed severance tax on gold mining.

It is planned to organize at this meeting a permanent committee to oppose the enactment of a severance tax on gold mining The meeting was called at the request of the Mining Committee of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce. The members of that committee in a report submitted to the Board of Directors of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce pointed out that the placing of a severance tax on gold mining at this time would throw thousands of miners out of work as an additional tax burden would make necessary the closing of many low-grade mining operations in the state.

Charles L. Gilmore, chairman of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce Mining Committee, in his letter to the Mining Board stated, "a crisis in gold mining is approaching under the guise of a severance tax on gross production. An assembly committee has been appointed to study severance taxes in all its phases under the chairmanship of Honorable Clifford R. Kallah. This committee is now functioning and has announced that it will hold a hearing in Sacramento on October 11 to consider the severance tax on gold."

It is contemplated that the views of mine owners expressed at the meeting on October 5 will be presented before the assembly committee hearing on October 11.

Don't Tax Gold

(Contributed)

It is currently reported that Governor Merriam's administration is urging a severance tax on all natural resources, including gold, as the solution of the state deficit which has to be met at the special session of the legislature in January. Friends of gold mining in this state should make their voices heard now in opposition to what amounts to a gross production tax on the output of California's gold mines. We understand that 3 percent is the figure suggested. California has made many mistakes in its taxation policy in the past, but none of them will compare with the mistake which it makes if it singles out its natural resources, and particularly its gold, for discriminatory taxation. Why should a man be taxed for the privilege of extracting gold or other minerals, or cutting timber on his own land and more than for the privilege of growing orchards or grain?

The claim is made by severance tax advocates that the mineral producer exhausts the taxable value of the soil and should be penalized. This is a fallacy. The mineral producer, through his enterprise, skill, and willingness to risk his money in a hazardous venture creates a value where none existed before; and so long as that value is added to the property the Government obtains its taxable return therefrom in the form of property taxes, income taxes, and sales taxes on everything that the producer uses. When the value which the mineral producer has added to the surface value of the land by the expenditure of his time, has been dissipated through the exhaustion of the mineral deposit, then indeed the land returns to its former value as non-mineral land. But the Government has not suffered. It has received the proper taxes on the added value so long as that value existed. That value existed only because of the possibility of extraction of the minerals in question. If the minerals were in the land and incapable of being extracted, they would add no value to it.

Why then should the mineral producer be singled out for discriminatory taxation? If the state's deficit must be met it should not be met by discriminatory taxes, penalizing those communities of the state in which the production of natural resources is the principal industry. A tax program should be adopted which distributes the burden equitably among all. Particularly unfair is the proposal to include gold in the category of taxable minerals, because, while the gold miner adds to the wealth of the state and takes nothing from it, he cannot pass along to his sole customer, the United States Government, in the form of an addition to the price of gold, taxes which are levied on his output. Engaged in one of the most hazardous of all industrial enterprises from the standpoint of probability of return, the gold miner must resent the proposal to still further penalize his courage and willingness to risk his capital and labor by discriminatory taxation.

WAR

(Contributed)

War makes derelicts of men. It mashes their arms and legs, it tears out their lungs, leaves them disfigured, blind, crippled, paralyzed.

War kills men. It snuffs out youths in the bud of life, and men in their prime—great men—scientists, philosophers, literary geniuses, executives, laborers, poets.

War kills children, too, mere babies in arms—mothers, wives, sweethearts. When it does not kill these, it takes from them their dearest possession, the man around whom their lives revolve, and leaves them flopping in the world, without anchor or shelter.

War leaves devastation in its wake. Fields, torn and shell-scarred, heal, after awhile, but nature's provisions, so lavishly squandered never return. Depression, debt, poverty, breadlines, hunger, suicide—these things follow war.

Today they tell us we are drifting into war again. Lust for power, for land and for money lie beneath the countless millions of words, words, words now rising to a rumbling chaos of clamor.

And each word, each single word is a plaintive plea to the stars that says, "Have mercy on us!"

MUMPS STILL A MENACE

Absences at the Nevada City high school have been rather numerous during the past few days due to the large number of mumps cases in this city. Principal H. E. Kjorlie reports a daily average of twenty five students absent due to this sickness and for other reasons Fortunately, such cases have been comparatively light and have not necessitated missing a great deal of school.

HEARING TESTS

Mrs. Ella M. Austin, county superintendent of schools, accompanied by County Health Nurse Mrs. Isobel Heffelfinger, returned from Graniteville and North Bloomfield Wednesday. They have completed the examination of pupils with the audiometer. The instrument has been returned to Sacramento.

Mrs. Austin stated that as soon as the health situation clears in Grass Valley the pupils in the schools there will be given the hearing test.

SEASON TICKETS FOR H. S. ATHLETIC EVENTS

Little has been said about the selling of season athletic tickets by the Nevada City high school. Much should be said, however, so the citizens may have an opportunity to take advantage of this opportunity before the season gets under way.

There are to be nine or more home league games, basketball, football, and baseball included, during the season about to begin. In former years, adults have been charged forty cents admission which practice will continue for those who wish to purchase individual tickets at each game. Taking action on an idea which many other high schools had already put into practice, the student council at the local high school decided to issue season tickets at two dollars each which would admit the bearer to all games mentioned above. Many council members opposed the ridiculously low price of the ticket since it means a saving of over a dollar and a half on football and basket ball games alone not including the baseball and practice games which are to be played. The plan passed, nevertheless, and the tickets are now ready for distribution Roxanne Boggs, Mervin Doolittle, Arthur Elliott, and Flossie Angove have tickets to sell and may be reached by phoning or calling at the high school.

Webster says that a bargain is an "advantageous offer." This is more than that. It is practically a gift to the sports fans of Nevada City.

A BULLET IN THE NIGHT

Upon their return Saturday evening from Sacramento Mrs. Brian Krough and daughter, Miss Betty Lou Krough, were just past Dew Drop Inn below Grass Valley when they were shocked by a stray bullet striking the rear wheel of their car. Although thoroughly frightened Mrs. Krough had presence of mind to step on the gas.

It is supposed it was the stray bullet from a careless and thoughless hunter's gun.

GOOD SERVICE COSTS NO MORE

A modern establishment—a trained, intelligent and courteous personnel — distinctive motor equipment and other evidences of progress and prosperity are NOT an indication that funeral service charges will be high. The business interests of our communities are represented in most every line of commercial activity, in very few instances is it necessary for us to send out of town for our wants. This is as it should be.

A good Cleaning and Dyeing Firm is essential to every well organized business center, and in this respect we are ably represented by the Jeffery Cleans, which is located at 109 South Church street in Grass Valley.

This firm is owned and managed by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Jeffrey. and they have proven that they know the inside and out in the cleaning business.

Some people have the impression that anyone can clean clothes by using ordinary home methods, and also they believe that it saves them money. Usually they have found out that the cleaning they did turned out to be a genuine failure. There are many reasons why.

It takes modern machinery and a knowledge of fabrics to give your clothes the right kind of cleaning and this can only be accomplished in a modern plant under expert management.

If you want to be assured of only the best in the cleaning of your suits, fine silk dresses, overcoats, and other garments, then get into the habit of having an expert firm do it, that's where the Grass Valley Cleaners fit in.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey have spared no expense in giving the Grass Valley and Nevada City area the finest cleaning service, and you'll find the prices are in keeping with expert workmanship Why take chances of ruining a fine garment or suit with ordinary methods.

Now here is the program. Look around the house, inspect your wardrobe and get out your fall clothes, prepare now and have them cleaned today by this firm, the service was never any better nor the prices any cheaper.

We believe that you will benefit by the services of this firm, we know that they have satisfied hundreds of old and new customers, who wanted what you expect to find in a good cleaning firm — clean clothes at a reasonable price.

A phone call will readily prove to you that a real service is obtainable at this firm, and remember one day service if desired.

YELLOWJACKETS READY FOR FIRST GAME TOMORROW

(By BEN SWEENEY)

At exactly 2:15 tomorrow afternoon on Nevada City high school's new football field, twenty two men will engage in active combat for the first contest of the 1935 season. Eleven of those men will journey from Oroville to meet the other eleven ,the picked men of Coach B. C. Barron's fighting Yellowjackets. With days and days of hard practices, stiff training, and tough scrimmages, the local team will array itself against the visitors to see whether that team or our own team is the better team.

Over-confidence seems to be the only flaw in the present set-up, and it is built up because of former records of individuals and the idea that the team is just naturally set to win. Over-confidence set one first-class prize fighter on the road to ruin within recent months, and it can do the same to the best team of players in the country The few hours intervening between the publication of this paper and the game itself may see a change take place in the spirit of the gridders.

Outstanding on the practice field, Dick Stevens, Burgen and "Smiles" Doolittle are bound to show some great playing when things begin to get warm tomorrow afternoon.

Due to this game being a non-league contest, twenty five cent prices will prevail for adults, and fifteen cent prices for children and for high school students without student body cards. Students with cards or holders of season tickets will be admitted with the showing of the tickets. Nevada City high school needs the support of the citizens. They are proud of their new field and they are anxious to show the folks their new tactics with a newer, bigger and better eleven.

LATIN CLUB FORMED BY HIGH SCHOOL CLASSES

Miss Peterson of the local high school has announced the formation f a Latin Club divided into two separate divisions this semester. Meeting on the first and third Fridays of the month, this organization works to learn more of Roman life and customs and to give reports of different phases of Roman life. Plans for the future meetings include plays, a Roman banquet, and the putting into practice of Latin expressions used today.

The following committee has drawn up the constitution for this semester: Mary Martz, George Gleason, Norlene Whitley, and Reggie Kennedy. The club selected the motto "Carpe diem" which means "seize the opportunity." Under the name S. P. Q. R. which stands for Roman Republic, the two divisions have elected their officers as follows:

Latin I: Consul, Reggie Kennedy; tribunte, Ross Hughes; quaestor. Jean Martz; censor, Etta Bankus, Aediles, Norlene Whitley and Louise Lattin.

Latin II: Consul, George Gleason; tribunte, Mary Martz; qpaestor, Roberta Dougharity; censor, Mary Lou Draper, aediles, Vella Flindt.

The first four Latin words concerning the officers have the same meaning as president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer do to any other organization. The latter term stands for program committee.

Miss Patricia Bonner who has been spending the summer months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Bonner of Nevada City will leave tomorrow for Salt Lake City, Utah where she will resume her sttudies at the college there.

DRIVER LICENSES RULES TIGHTER UNDER NEW LAWS

New regulations concerning drivers' licenses are now in effect with the object of weeding out incompetent or habitually dangerous drivers. Actual fitness for the privilege of operating an automobile as implied by possession of a driver's license, is being put to the test of a system of records designed for that purpose. Each individual driver of California's more than three million licensed operators will have placed against his name in the files of the Department of Motor Vehicles every accident and every violation of traffic laws as shown by accident reports and court records.

Drivers whose records raise doubt as to their fitness will be summoned for re-examination to determine whether their licenses should be suspended or revoked. Thus the weeding out process is expected to operate with methodical accuracy and effect.

This feature of the new driver's license regulations enacted by the last legislature is emphasized by Percy E. Towne, chairman of the Public Safety Committee of the California State Automobile Association in a statement reviewing the measures. Towne said:

"Motorists who are inclined to be careless or wilfully disobedient to traffic laws should bear in mind that hereafter any driver may be re-examined at will, and if any person's accident or court record indicates that he is not a safe driver, he will probably have difficulty in retaining his license to drive.

"The department of motor vehicles has been given greatly increased powers in the issuance and cancellation of drivers' licenses and the new system of records will make it possible to determine at a glance the safety record of individual drivers. With the motoring public aware of this close scrutiny it can be expected that there will be a more general effort among drivers to keep their records clear."

An amended section of the vehicle code provides that the Department may conduct an investigation as to whether a license should be suspended or revoked upon receiving information or upon a showing by its records.

1. That the licensee has been involved as a driver in any accident causing death or personal injury or serious damage to property.
2. That he has been involved in three or more accidents within a period of twelve consecutive months.
3. That he is an habitual violator of traffic laws.
4. That he is an habitual reckless, negligent or incompetent driver.
5. That he has permitted unlawful or fraudulent use of his license.
6. That any ground exists for which a license might be refused.

Immediate revocation of the driver's license is mandatory in the event of conviction of manslaughter or negligent homicide; of causing injury or death when driving while drunk; of driving when addicted to or under the influence of narcotics; of failure to stop after an accident involving personal injury; of three charges of reckless driving within twelve consecutive months; of any felony under the vehicle code or any felony in which a motor vehicle is used.

Licenses so revoked cannot be renewed until the expiration of one year and until the driver involved has given proof of ability to respond in damages as provided by law.

Provision is also made for suspension of licenses in misdemeanor drunk driving cases (those not involving death or injury); for reckless driving causing bodily injury; and in misdemeanor cases of failure to stop after an accident.

An important addition to the tests for issuance of a driver's license is that of mental fitness, although it is provided that "any mental or physical defect which in the opinion of the department does not affect the applicant's ability to exercise reasonable and ordinary control in operating a motor vehicle shall not prevent the issuance of a license."

PARK AVE. AND NIMROD ST.

One of the finest paving jobs ever done in Nevada City was completed last week on Nimrod street from the junction of Park avenue out past the swimming pol, by Superintendent of Streets H. H. Hallett and crew. Some work is being done on Cottage street in the northwest part of town and several of the crew have been patching worn places in the pavement in many parts of Nevada City in the last few days.

KNOW YOUR COMMUNITY'S BUSINESS FIRMS

In this business review we desire to acquaint our readers only with firms and individuals who have established a policy of square dealing, and who want to give a better service in their respective lines.

Such is the record of C. K. Heffern, Plymouth and DeSoto dealer for Nevada county, whose offices and sales rooms are located 205 South Auburn street, Grass Valley.

All of us desire to own a car, a new one if possible . . . you have the make in mind and so have we. The only thing that seems to keep us from realizing this desire is that we cannot afford to purchase a new one—then the next best thing is to buy a good used car of the style and price we can afford.

In choosing a used car, either for pleasure or business purposes, it is well to first consider the dealer. Who, Why and Where. After all a used car is only as good as the dealer in back of it.

While Mr. Heffern has sold many new cars in Grass Valley and Nevada City he has also established a high record for the number of used cars sold, and each one has given complete satisfaction. Mr. Heffern states that his used cars make him his best friends.

Now here is the program. If you want to buy a good used car, one that will give you service, one that is sold to you with a guarantee, visit the salesrooms of C. K. Heffern. Don't forget the address 205 South Auburn Blvd, Grass Valley. Tell him what kind of a car you want and how much you want to pay for it. Out of the many cars he has on hand, he is sure to have what you want. He is in the business of representing a car as it is, so don't expect to be fooled, you will get not only what you want but what he tells you you are buying and he guarantees what he says.

Before buying any kind of a car investigate what Plymouth and De Soto has to offer you in added comfort, economy and value. You cannot go wrong on the service that C. K. Heffern gives you on either a new or used car.

KNOW YOUR COMMUNITY'S BUSINESS FIRMS

The Welding Works business has become recognized as a real important factor in every community, especially in industrial and mining centers such as Nevada City, Grass Valley and surrounding area.

We do not realize the importance of such firms until we need something welded, and we usually need the job in a hurry, that's exactly where the services of the Electric Welding Works, located at 132 East Main Street in Grass Valley fit into the picture.

Many times the farmer, the mining man, the motorist and the house wife have used the services of this concern and it has not only saved many dollars, but has saved them an endless delay of time.

The old saying that the "chain is no stronger than it's weakest link" is indeed a true one, for in this case welding makes the chain as strong as it's strongest link.

Carl A. Oding the manager of this firm has been called upon to do some of the most difficult jobs on all kinds of machinery, implements and auto work of all kinds, throughout the country, In each case has the job been more than satisfactory.

In the welding of both small and large machinery, household articles, appliances and countless other items that become broken this firm has become headquarters.

Brass, bronze and aluminum, cast iron and steel can be welded so as to make the part as good as new at small cost compared with the expense of new parts or time lost.

The proper welding of anything requires skill and technique and Carl Oding has had years of experience behind his work.

Let us suggest that at any time you have broken machinery, regardless of what it is, household utensils, appliances, don't throw them away. Take it to the Electric Welding Shop at 132 East Main street, Grass Valley. Let them prove to you that they can fix it at a reasonable cost. Take your welding problems to a firm who know how.

CONSOLIDATED METALS PROPERTY

The shaft being sunk on the Consolidated Metals property west of Nevada City by Superintendent H. B. Morse is down 70 feet. Three shifts of eighteen men are employed on the property which is composed of the Marks and Goering ground. A part of the road has been changed and two bridges built to cut out a steep grade to the mine shaft. As the ore is mined it is piled on the dump awaiting such time as a mill is deemed necessary.

SHOWER PARTY AT WASHINGTON

The ladies of the Number Two camp at the Spanish mine entertained at a dainty lingerie shower on Thursday afternoon honoring Mrs. Douglas Ribble. The affair was arranged as a complete surprise. Dainty refreshments were served with about twenty ladies present.

NO RED WITHOUT THE WHITE AND BLUE

There's no other land like my land,
Beneath the shining sun;
There's no other flag like my flag—
In all the world—not one.
One land, one tongue and one people,
To one flag loyal, true;
No red shall wave o'er my fair land
Without the white and blue.

There's grandeur in my land's mountain
Contentment in her vales;
There's wealth in her broad prairies,
There's freedom in her gales.
In my land all men are equal,
Her flag proclaims it, too—
No red shall wave o'er my fair land
Without the white and blue.

There's majesty in Old Glory,
Hope in each stripe and star;
It heralds Freedom, Liberty
To nations near and far;
Unsullied and triumphant,
Glorified, she floats anew—
No red shall wave o'er my fair land
Without the white and blue.

With Compliments of Superior Judge McMahon or Downieville.

Mr. Henry Clark and brother, Jack Clark and the former's son, Melvin, spent Sunday hunting on English Mountain in eastern Nevada county. While they did not see many deer, but a few droves of grouse were roused from sheltered spots.

CANADIAN PASSPORTS FOUND IN ROAD HERE

A very valuable package was found yesterday morning by Mrs. Ethel Robinson, who resides at Olympia Park. Mrs. Robinson with her husband and children have recently come to Nevada City and plan to make their permanent home.

As Mrs. Robinson was driving her husband to the bus this morning she saw a purse in the middle of the road. After picking it up and opening it to find who the owner might be she found it to contain fifty cents and very valuable papers. They were the owners passport to Canada, to where she was probably enroute, and very fine recommendations as a labratory nurse, from a hospital in Canada which testified to the owners seven years excellent service there.

Mrs. Robinson is making every effort to find trace of the owner whose name of course is in the recommendations and passport. The assumption is that she will need the passport to enter Canada and may retrace her route to locate them. Anyone hearing of an inquiry please notify Mrs. Robinson at Olympia Park or through the Nugget office.

LAVA CAP MINE

The reopening and enlarging of the tunnel at the Lava Cap mine property southeast of Nevada City is making good progress, the work now being in about 2500 feet. Cross-cutting is being done on the 1400 foot level to contact the Central vein. The big mill is treating about 200 tons of ore per day. Mr. Otto E. Schiffner superintendent, also stated the tailings dam of the mining company is being raised 20 feet to comply with the demands of the P. G. & E. Company. There are 178 men employed.

PONEMAH COUNCIL

Several car loads of members from Pocahontas with their Great Second Counselor Nettie Gildersleeve of this city motored to Roseville last evening to attend a meeting of Lolomi Council, the home of Great Minnehaha Olive Harrington. They will also greet Great Pocahontas Stella Ely of Palo Alto.

Among others attending from Nevada City were District Deputy Jessie Costa and Pohahontas Blanche Williams.

SPANISH MINE

The whole top of the mountain above the upper camp at the Spanish mine above Washington is being taken off and it is understood this is to prevent caving when winter storms soak the ground. Crews are blasting and removing debris with a bull-dozer tractor. The shaft is about 500 feet deep at the upper camp. Drifting and mining are being done on the 500 foot level. Ore is treated at the mill at the lower camp, going down on a mile and half tramway.

STONE MASON WANTED IMMEDiately to build stone fireplace. H. Haley off Tahoe Ukiah, on road 50 feet beyond Ski Course at Frank Peri's sign. 3-4 mile down this road. 9-27-2tp

A Glimpse of Building Activity

VOL. 1. SEPTEMBER 27, 1935. No 25.

Properties at Gold Flat are being improved in greater number every day. At present Mr. Chas. Wodell and Mr. Chas. Meyers are building homes. Mr. Meyers is using knotty pine in the siding in the popular log cabin style.

Our stock of log cabin siding in several patterns and in redwood and knotty pine gives our customers a choice in the appearance of their homes.

Contractor Geo. Bobst, has started construction of a duplex apartment for Mrs. Ted Janiss. This will be an investment for Mrs. Janiss and present indications are that rental property in Nevada City should prove the best kind of investment.

Built in conveniences in the bathroom, medicine cabinets, soap dishes plastered into the wall, etc, are being installed, in practically all modern homes. We have them in stock and will be glad to show them to you.

New goal posts for the football field are being installed. These however are not the kind the boys and gals carry away after the game, the uprights being 4x6-24 feet long.

Mr. J. B. Bennett of Grass Valley is having a building constructed on So. Auburn street which will be used for a drive-in market.

With log cabin rustic exterior and Oregon pine panelled interior this building is attractive and well suited for a store.
